Yes

5. How will you support efforts to lower inequitable penalties in the Teachers Retirement Association in order to expand retirement options?

First and foremost, I will spend time listening to the educators and retired educators throughout the state to gain insights into their priorities and the challenges they face. Our educators literally have our future in their hands each day, and we owe it to them to

Taxes/revenue

10. Would you commit to raising revenue to ensure the wealthiest corporations and richest households pay what they truly owe in taxes so every student, no matter what they look like or where they live, can attend a fully funded public school that prepares them to pursue their dreams?

Yes

11. Education Minnesota believes in restoring fairness to the state tax code by raising revenue from the very wealthiest corporations and richest households and reducing the reliance on local levies to fund schools. Considering your own experience and expertise, are there other progressive, equitable ways to raise state revenue that you would recommend the union consider supporting?

No

12. Fully funded schools require adequate and stable revenues. Will you oppose tax cuts and carve outs that lower tax collections or narrow the tax base?

17. What would you do, as a state legislator, to help with the cost of higher education?

2024 Candidate endorsement questionnaire : Entry #

For many graduating high school students, the cost of tuition alone is a deterrent. Those that choose to take out loans in order to get an education and further their future opportunities are saddled with thousands upon thousands of dollars in debt. The problem is multifaceted and therefore the solution must likewise be multifaceted. Incentive programs, loan forgiveness, grant expansion, tuition reduction, and expanding on work study, apprenticeships, and PSEO options could all be part of that solution.

18. The North Star Promise is expected to result in an increase in enrollment on our campuses. Many of these students are projected to be disproportionately first-generation students and students from historically underserved communities. As a legislator, what would you do to ensure these students had the support they needed to be successful?

It's important to provide strong peer support groups, guidance counseling, and professors that approach me students from a place of understanding and empathy. Visiting campuses and listening to students and staff would be key.

19. There are efforts to expand the North Star Promise to Minnesota's private colleges and universities. This would dramatically increase the amount of public money going to private institutions. Do you support the expansion of the North Star Promise to include private colleges and universities?

No

High-quality professional educators

20. What will you do to help recruit and retain high-quality educators in our classrooms?

I believe that we have to engage students in high school and recruit them, but we also have to recognize that there are gifted people from all walks of life with diverse backgrounds. Therefore, we must seem out high quality educators with unique background, and backgrounds akin to careers in education such as direct care.

Standardized testing

21. What individual or system-level decisions in education do you believe are appropriate to make based on standardized test scores?

I can see test scores being utilized to review the effectiveness of curriculums and the importance of smaller class sizes.

Honesty in Education

22. Most educators believe students should have access to a wide range of age-appropriate books that include relatable characters and situations that reflect the diversity of Minnesota families. However, certain politicians and big money groups are trying to remove books from school libraries across America, particularly books with LGBTQ+ characters or those that deal with racism in America. How should Minnesota protect its students' freedom to read?

It's absolutely vital that we fight against the banning of books. Reading gives us insight to people living experiences that are vastly different from our own. We must make it clear that Minnesota does not support the removal of books that are as much an artistic expression as they are a mirror to our own history and society. Protecting our students and their ability to safely access varying points of view through their school libraries is important, especially for students who may not have that access at home. Using rating systems and parental permission slips is a good starting point, but we also need to explore ways to combat the senseless opposition seen in school board meetings.

23. Education Minnesota believes all students should have the freedom to feel safe and welcome in their public school, no matter what they look like, where they're from, how they pray, transgender or not. Do you agree?

Yes

24. Students bring many needs into their public schools, but our union believes they all deserve the freedom to grow with the help of support for their mental health and with lessons in how to recognize and control their emotions, which is sometimes called social-emotional learning. Do you support increasing support for students' mental and emotional health in public schools?

Time to Teach

MoveDuplicate Settings Delete 25. The planning and differentiating that teachers do daily needs more time. Most after school "prep" is filled with meetings. The current statute falls short of the time needed for preparing lessons. Will you support adjusting this statute to increase prep time?

Yes

26. Will you support legislation that protects an educator's prep time so it can't be used for meetings or having to sub for colleagues?

Yes

27. Do you support paid, dedicated time outside of student contact time for special education teachers to complete their paperwork and attend required meetings?

Yes

School safety

28. Creating incentives for school administrators to enforce districts' codes of conduct without bias and/or creating accountability measures for those who don't?

Yes

29. Increase reporting and transparency in worksite safety when reporting physical injuries and emotional trauma in the workplace?

Yes

Union Rights

30. The ability of workers to come together in union and bargain collectively has been vital for reducing wage gaps by gender, building the middle class, and limiting wealth inequality in Minnesota. Do you support expanding and strengthening workers' rights to join a union and bargain collectively?

Yes

31. Will you oppose any legislation or constitutional amendments that would weaken collective bargaining rights, the right to organize, the right to strike, automatic payment of union dues, union access and activities at worksites or other anti-union policies backed by anti-worker groups?

Yes

32. How will you support unions as a state legislator?

I would work to strengthen unions and the right to organize, as well as fight to educate those who would oppose unions.

Yes

Your role as a legislator

Have you visited a public school in your district in the past year? If so, which one? What were your observations from your visit? How will that experience inform your work as a legislator? If not, when did you last visit a school? Would you like us to help arrange a visit?

Absolutely. I have 4 children in 3 of our district's schools. Riverside Elementary, Forestview Middle School, and Lincoln Education Center are all great school with committed and caring staff. That is always the biggest take away for me: the level of care and dedication among the staff.
Frequent visits to local schools is so important when making decisions that have an impact on students, educators, and staff in our public schools.

What have you done to become informed on issues relating to public education? What organizations and individuals do you go to for your information?

Staying up to date on issues before the school board, communicating frequently with educators and staff at various schools, and following current events that may impact our schools, educators, administrators and staff at all levels within our public schools.

How do you envision working with Education Minnesota if you are elected/re-elected? If you disagree with us on an issue, how will you communicate that?

I don't foresee many areas where I would take issue with the stance of Education Minnesota. However, I believe open and honest communication should be at the forefront of any working relationship. I will strive to communicate respectfully and lean into the facts of the given situation and away from editorial commentary.
I will listen to the concerns of Education Minnesota and will fight for the needs of our students and teachers consistently.

If elected/re-elected, how will you balance competing priorities that might exist between Education Minnesota and other education groups?

I will prioritize the viewpoints that hold students, educators, and staff as the most important considerations in any agenda.
